Remembering...

Charline Carol Gupton was born in Massilon, Ohio on November 21, 1916 to her parents, Lela and Jeff Harrison. She attended school and was educated in Akron, Ohio.

As a young adult she married Frank Taylor. From this union was born one son, Ellis Taylor.

She confessed Christ at an early age, and later moved to California where she joined McGlothen Temple under the leadership of Bishop G.W. McGlothen, in 1948. She was a very active and dedicated worker in the service of the Lord. She served on the Usher Board and as a Sunday School Teacher for the church.

She served faithfully in the church as she moved her membership to Mt. Zion COGIC in 1973, under the leadership of Bishop C.J. Davis; later Elder Haven Butler, Elder J. Jennings and her past Pastor Malachi Hall. At Mt. Zion, she served faithfully as secretary, usher and mother of the church.

In 1970 she was united in marriage to Ellis Gupton, who preceded her in death.

She leaves to mourn her passing: one son, Ellis Taylor; four stepchildren, Janice, Tyron, Rufus and Gwen Gupton; godchildren, Neil, Gregory, Verdina, Carmen, David, Charline and Jacqueline (Robinson family); longtime close friend and godbrother, Rufus Robinson; and a host of nephews, nieces, other relatives and friends.

Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the day
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room.
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love we once shared-
Miss me, but let me go.
For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Maker's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds-
Miss me, but let me go.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

*Perhaps you made a comforting call or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a card or dish of food; If so we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much.
Whatever the part, may God bless you. -The Family*
